

Draye Densmore

Actor-Model-Voice Over

Eyes: Blue

Hair: Blonde

Height: 5'10

Weight: 165

Film:

Digital Series

“Judgemental Executive”

Supermission/Jellysmack Productions

Was lead role as Tim a harsh executive

“Sexist Bartender”

Supermission/Jellysmack Productions

Played lead role as disrespectful bartender

Student Film

“Dear Anne”

University of Texas Film School

Played lead role as an apocalypse survivor

“Art Therapy”

University of Texas Film School

Played Mr. Judge in the main supporting role of the film

Short Film

“A Sign From Above”

Generation Hope Studios

Played Ted in the main supporting role of the film

Commercial:

Principal role in a commercial for Keller Williams

Keller Williams Realty

Realty in which I performed numerous real estate activities

Principal where I was a potential school intruder

Arts and Labor Productions

demonstrating the security system would detect me

Model:

Was featured on the Weatherford (Texas) College bus that was driven to neighboring cities promoting the school

Weatherford College

Training:

Acting class focusing on non verbals and emotion implementation

Lee Stringer

Acting class focusing on different genres and character development

Marco Perella

Commercial acting class that went in Pointer

Mike

depth on the details of how to stand out in an audition while gaining the casting director's attention

Took introduction to theater at Texas Tech University

Texas Tech University

Acting in various improv groups while studying the history of theater in depth